Did you know that soap is a weapon you can use to fight germs?
By washing your hands before you leave the house and after you come home, you are joining the battle against disease!